

Summer Fun Programs!

No matter what your family plans are for summer, by high school students should have some structure and goals for their summer to build that resume for college and beyond. Travel, learn a new skill, take a class or give back to the community. Create those experiences you can write about and create memories for a lifetime!

<http://summer.berkeley.edu/pre-collegiate>

This pre-collegiate program offers students the chance to join the community of more than 250 high school students who spend their time enjoying a summer at Berkeley. Take advantage of courses, co-curricular activities, and workshops planned just for you and earn college credit too!

<http://www.gobroadreach.com/>

Broadreach is a worldwide program that offers more than 35 different trips to over 30 countries! Programs for students in 7th grade all the way up to college students. Community services hours and school credits are offered with many of the trips.

<http://www.bestsummerever.com/>

The worldwide summer opportunities combined recreational sports, stimulating academics and cultural activities. The programs are located on college campuses throughout the world.

www.lpiabroad.com/

LPI programs emphasize cultural immersion and language acquisition for high school students. Students attend on average 40-80 hours of language, culture or elective courses. The LPI program is designed for high school students 16 and up, with at least a GPA of 3.0.

<http://www.outwardbound.org/>

Outward Bound provides experience-based outdoor leadership programs for teens, adults and professionals. "Outward Bound courses change lives and provide students the tools to see farther, climb higher and know your way." Seek challenge and embark on a backpacking trip, mountaineering class, kayaking adventure, sailing trip or an urban expedition in your community.

<http://www.nols.edu/about/>

With courses ranging from 10 days to a full academic year, NOLs attracts highly motivated students who want to learn how to lead. The hands on, learn-by-doing approach means that graduates get the skills they need to be competent, responsible wilderness travelers.

<http://www.summerdiscovery.com/>

For 40 years, high school students have enjoyed summers filled with fun, educational and innovative activities. Programs include college credit, internships, research mentorship, sport management, leadership programs, SAT prep, Skills for Mind and Body, enrichment, writing, community service, college admissions prep, tennis, golf, cooking and many other activities. Located at many UC campuses.

<http://summer.usc.edu/index.shtml>

USC Summer Programs extends this tradition of excellence to outstanding high school and middle school students through 4 – 2 – 1 week course options. 4-Week and 2-Week courses offer high school students a preview of “freshman year” through a variety of college subjects, and the 1-Week Exploration on Catalina Island provides high school women and middle school girls the opportunity to learn marine science in the field at the USC Wrigley Institute for Environmental Studies.

<http://www.barnard.edu/pcp>

At Barnard College, enrich your academic experience and get a head start on college in the world’s greatest city, New York. Explore the city while taking fascinating classes with our world-renowned faculty, exploring careers and interests from architecture to outer space, making friends from around the world, and getting a head start on college applications through our admissions workshops

<http://www.bu.edu/summer/high-school-programs/>

Boston University summer programs for high school students challenge you intellectually while introducing you to college life. You also discover the bonds of a strong social community through fun activities on campus and around Boston. Join motivated high school students from 47 states and 46 countries for an experience that will give you a true advantage in college.

<http://ysp.ucdavis.edu/>

The UC Davis Young Scholars Program is a summer residential research program designed to expose high achieving high school students to the world of original research in the natural sciences with emphases on the biological, environmental and agricultural sciences. Students must be currently enrolled as sophomores or juniors in high school. Students will work on an individual project and prepare a journal quality paper and symposium presentation. Participants are introduced to the climate and culture of living and working on a university campus.

<http://www.actionquest.com/>

ActionQuest offers incredible summer adventure camps for teens. For 30 years, AQ has consistently delivered high quality sailing camps, scuba camps, community service camps and marine biology camps. Through hands-on learning and adventure travel throughout the world, they have successfully ignited the inherent leadership skills within thousands of young adults

<http://fidm.edu/news-events/days-of-fashion/index.html>

FIDM (Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandizing) 3 Days of Fashion is the perfect summer event created especially for high school students (limited spaces for sophomores and freshmen) and is held on all four FIDM California campuses. Check out all three days for $250 (hotel accommodations and airfare are not included). Spend 3 days with FIDM and invest in your future!

<http://www.academictreks.com>

AcademicTreks consists of summer expeditions in which students can travel to many countries ranging from Costa Rica, China to countries as far away as China. The program provides for college credit, community service, and knowledge of different cultures.

<http://www.experimentinternational.org>

The Experiment in International Living is a exciting and enriching program that provides high school students with the opportunity to enrich themselves and the world around them by offering 3-5 week programs in different countries of the world. These trips provide many opportunities for language training, arts and exploration, community service, and simply travel and discovery.

<http://epic.calpoly.edu>

Engineering Possibilities in College (EPIC) is a program that offers exposure to all kinds of engineering. This program is a great opportunity for Cal Poly San Luis Obispo students to offer their knowledge to young people in their community. Days only no overnight accommodations.

<http://www.fullsail.edu>

At Northfield Mount Hermon Summer Session engage in 5 different programs: College Preparation, Middle School, English as a Second Language, Contemporary Dance, and New Zealand Summer Abroad. These programs provide college credit, experience in college, and a great opportunity for experience in a new country.

<http://www.globalworkstravel.com/>

Global Works Travel with a Purpose offers an incredible opportunity to travel for high school students. It provides the students with community service, cultural exchange, language learning, and adventure.

<http://www.oasp.ac.uk/>

Oxford Advanced Studies Program is a summer program for high school students that can travel to England and attend college seminars at Oxford University. The program offers many courses in Art, Humanities, and Social and Natural Sciences.

<http://smysp.stanford.edu/>

Stanford Medical Science Program provides high school sophomores and juniors a great opportunity to experience Stanford University. The program is designed to further interest those students interested in health careers, science, and medicine.

<http://www.nylf.org/>

The National Youth Leadership is a great program in which students can travel all over the country. Many different forums are offered in the program including Leadership, Medicine, Law and CSI, and National Security.

<http://www.csssa.ca.gov>

California State Summer School for the Arts offers a 4-week summer arts program. Students are offered many course in fields including, animation, film & video, creative writing, dance, music, theatre, and visual arts. Students have opportunities to work with professional artists, writers, and performers.

<http://www.clylp.org>

The Chicano Latino Youth Leadership Project Inc. is an opportunity for 10th and 11th grade students to attend a week-long conference at a California State University. Students attend Legislative Day, campaign development workshops, and experience college and career days.